

Glossary

National communication (NC): a report submitted in accordance with the Convention (and the Protocol) by which a Party informs of its activities undertaken to address climate change. Most developed countries have now submitted their seventh national communications; most developing countries have completed their second national communication and are in the process of preparing their third or fourth.