THE COUNTRY ENGAGEMENT PROCESSES

FIVE STAGES:

1. A country requests support
2. Gaps assessed
3. Develop and Partnership Plan to match support supply to gap demands
4. Plan is implemented
5. Plan implementation and results are assessed and adjusted

THE PARTNERSHIP PLAN

| INPUTS | OUTPUTS |
|---|---|
| A multi-stakeholder participatory process | Partnership Plan approved by the government |
| Commitment from relevant stakeholders | Final list of Implementing Partners with their roles and responsibilities |

VALUE ADDED

- Matching country-led demands for services with supply side;
- Providing a framework for investment and mobilizing resources by identifying country gaps in supply;
- A tool for coordinating and tracking progress of initiatives between government and Implementing Partners; and
- Ensuring transparency on who is doing what for stronger collective impact.
