

Glossary

International assessment and review (IAR): international assessment and review is a process applied to Biennial Reports and National Communications, which are prepared by Annex I Parties. The IAR process is conducted under the Subsidiary Body of Implementation in two steps: a technical review of the national reports of each developed country, followed by the multilateral assessment of the progress towards achieving the economy-wide target by developed country Parties. More info here.