

Glossary

Accuracy: means that the estimates are not systemically lower or higher than true emissions or removals, as far as can be judged, and that uncertainties are reduced as far as practical.