

Glossary

International consultation and analysis (ICA): international consultation and analysis is a process adopted at the sixteenth session of the Conference of the Parties as part of the measurement, reporting and verification arrangements under the Cancun Agreements. It applies to BURs, which are prepared by Parties not included in Annex I to the Convention (developing countries). More information here.