

Glossary

Completeness: means that an estimated category has full geographical and temporal coverage, and that for all inventory categories for which IPCC provides methods, the GHG flux is estimated.